To whom it may concern:

To the best of our knowledge nobody by the name of Donte Smith has ever worked at our company. However, we do have a customer by that name who registered in December of 2015.

Several pieces of information on the verification form are incorrect, including the name of the business and the address.

I should also point out that we began operating in 2015, so it is impossible that Mr. Smith worked for us in 2014. This is a confusing situation.

Sincerely,

Jason Thistlethwaite
